

4. CHANGE IN CHILD SUPPORT

NOTE: In order to obtain an increase or decrease in support payments because of a change in income of the person making the payments, the change in income must be both long term and significant. The court will not modify a support order because of a minor or temporary increase or decrease in income. The general guideline for determining whether a change in income is significant is if the change is enough to raise or lower the support payments by 15% or more. You must attach any documentation you have that supports your request. Examples include pay stubs, tax returns, and proof of social security or disability benefits.

Do you want the support payments for the above children to be:

- increased decreased no change in support payments

Check all of the following boxes that explain why you are requesting an increase or decrease. [Attach extra pages if necessary.]

a. The income of the person making the child support payments has increased or decreased. (If you check this box, attach documentation of the increase or decrease and explain why it has occurred.)_____

b. Support payments should be changed because there has been a change in where the children are living. (If you check this box, list the dates when the living arrangements changed, explain what the current living arrangements are, and attach any documents you have to support your claim.)_____

c. Support payments should be changed because there has been a change in the availability or cost of medical insurance for the children or because medical expenses for the children have increased or decreased. (If you check this box, attach all available documents that support the requested change.)_____

d. Other (Be specific and attach any supporting documents.)_____

Income Withholding. If your current support order in this case does not require immediate income withholding but CSSD is enforcing the order, the court will be required to order immediate income withholding in its modification order unless one of the three exceptions authorized by Alaska Statute 25.27.062(m) applies. For an explanation of those exceptions, see form DR-10, pages 13-14 (available at the court).

Is CSSD currently enforcing your support order Yes No
If yes, is there a reason why the court should not order immediate income withholding?
